

Kentford and Kennett Village Hall Anti-Bribery Policy

Kentford and Kennett Village Hall has the following policy with respect to bribery, for trustees of Kentford and Kennett Village Hall, compliance with this policy forms part of your responsibility as a trustee.

- Kentford and Kennett Village Hall is committed to carry on its business fairly, honestly, and openly in all of its markets across the world, and therefore takes a zero-tolerance approach to bribery
- Kentford and Kennett Village Hall notes that it operates in some markets where there has historically been, and currently there is, a culture of bribery (as defined by the Act)
- The board and management teams of all parts for Kentford and Kennett Village Hall are firmly committed to compliance with the Act, and as such expect all trustees/contractors and agents to comply with the Act
- Kentford and Kennett Village Hall and its trustees/contractors/agents must not pay bribes
- Kentford and Kennett Village Hall and its trustees/contractors/agents must not accept bribes
- Any trustee/contractor/agent becoming aware of any bribery within Kentford and Kennett Village Hall, should report it to the trustees as soon as possible.
- Normal hospitality in the course of corporate business, signed off in accordance with budgets and the finance process is acceptable and is not seen as bribery